MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE

From the front line as a Newcastle Knights cheerleader to in front of the paparazzi lens, Jennifer Hawkins' natural beauty and laid-back charm won her the Miss Universe crown and the heart of the Trump himself, who rates her as his favourite beauty queen. She's the all-rounder; the face of an iconic Australian department store; a swimwear designer; a television presenter; and the fashion model with characteristic earthiness that endears her to everyday Aussies.

Jennifer Hawkins wears Chanel white and grey dress, $3840.
